ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
SCHOOL COMMITTEE
AND THE SUPERINTENDENT of SCHOOLS

TOWN OF HARWICH
MASSACHUSETTS

FOR THE YEAR 1929

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE

---

The year 1929 was eventful in the history of our schools.

The death of Superintendent William F. Sims brought sorrow to the whole school organization and townspeople. His ability and sympathetic work with the teachers made for harmony and improvement in all the grades. His loss was keenly felt by your committee, who could not help feeling some anxiety for conditions which might arise in the schools, but this anxiety was soon dismissed by the ability and loyalty to duty of our entire corps of teachers, and their fine work cannot pass without an expression of our appreciation.

Mr. C. H. Pratt, who has recently taken the superintendency of our schools, comes to us highly recommended. Let us give him our support, trusting he may bring to us new ideas for the continued advancement in the standard of our schools.

The general condition of our school buildings is good. The addition made to the grade school building at the Center, took money intended for sanitary improvements, which we hope can be made another year.

Health conditions have not been serious, though some of the schools were closed for one week on account of an epidemic of diphtheria in a mild form.

In the resignation of Mr. Holmes, the remaining members of the committee will miss his enthusiastic interest and co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY M. SMALL,
RALPH W. DOANE,
CHARLES D. HOLMES,

School Committee.

COURSE OF STUDY

Following my recommendation of a year ago a detailed course of study has been put in force this fall. It is comparable to that found in the better schools of the Commonwealth, and replaces the elective system which did not hold the students to the requirements of institutions of higher education. Though it is in a transitional stage at present, another year should see it perfected and in smooth operation.

The academic requirements for students have necessarily been raised, and the results thus far have justified its adoption.

Dean Nicolson, Chairman of the College Entrance Examination Board, after examining the plan, extended to this school the specimen privilege of sending graduates to college without examination. Miss Elsie J. Robbins was permitted to enter Tufts College under this agreement this fall.

ACTIVITIES

The annual Senior Play entitled "Step On It Stan" was presented April 5 to a large and appreciative audience. Considerable credit should be given Miss Martha A. Farnsworth, who coached the play. It was successful from both a dramatic and a financial standpoint.

This year's play "The Girl Who Forgot", by Lillian Mortimer, will be given in Exchange Hall, February 7.

The Spelling Match students from Harwich, Chatham and Orleans High Schools was won by Harwich, Miss Natalie Hardacker being the individual winner. The trophy, a large silver cup, is on display in the High School building. Needless to say, we expect to retain the cup for another year.

On April 12, 1929 the Senior Class started on a seven day trip to New York, Philadelphia and Washington. Unquestionably everyone enjoyed the outing, but there remains in my mind a serious question as to whether or not the trip gives a satisfactory return, as an educational measurer, for the work, time, and tremendous expense involved. This is a matter which should receive careful consideration when further trips are contemplated.

The Baccalaureate Service and Graduation Exercises of last June marked a distinct change in school procedure. Many favorable comments were heard, and I hope to have a similar service this year. Tentative plans for Graduation in 1930 include the presentation of a Cantata by the Senior High School Chorus.

In athletic contests the year has been marked with more than fair success. The boys' basket ball team won a majority of its games; the girls', with unseasoned players, gained valuable experience, but won only one game. In baseball we finished second in our division of the league. The aim in High School athletics, however, should not be directed so strongly towards the winning of games, but rather towards the development of character through organized play.

Mr. Thomas H. Nassi, instructor of instrumental music, reports a steady progress being made in the formation of an orchestra. If parents would have their children practice in accordance with their own agreement, more rapid improvement could be made. At present there are about thirty pupils in the classes.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Louis E. Dean, of Dennisport, we have had the privilege of listening to the R. C. A. Music Appreciation Hour each week. Mr. Dean has furnished us with a radio each Friday throughout the series of concerts. After each concert a discussion period is conducted, following a prearranged lesson plan. I believe these weekly concerts will greatly enhance our musical knowledge.

We are planning for one issue of the school paper, "Oak Leaves," to be in the form of an annual Year Book. This will probably be published during the month of May, and will be larger and more comprehensive than any yet attempted.

National Education Week in November was observed in the school by an exhibition day. Regular classes in each department were open to the public, and a pleasing number of visitors attended.

Another innovation which I hope to present this year is a Prize Speaking Contest to stimulate interest in public speaking. In a contest of this kind contestants are required to speak excerpts from orations or addresses delivered by well known public speakers in comparatively recent years.

NEEDS

Once again I mention the need of providing the teachers' room with furniture. As the room is at present, it is not an object of uride to the community. At very little expense it could be made one.

Our need for a radio, with connecting loud-speakers in each room, seems to be approaching fulfilment. The school has a fund of over $80.00 towards this project.

Visual education has reached a recognized objective in modern educationel procedure. Classroom films are available in nearly every branch of study at a nominal cost. We ought to plan to equip our schools with suitable projectors, in order to avail ourselves of this efficient teaching device.

RECOMMENDATION

Realizing the tremendous advances that technical pedagogy is making in these progressive years, I submit to you, that the children of Harwich could bemore effectively instructed instructed, if the teachers were able to avail themselves of the courses of professional study at Summer Schools.

I would recommend that the teachers be given some material encouragement for matriculation in a recognized professional Summer School.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL A. MORRIS,

Principal.

Harwich, Mass., January 6, 1930.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF DRAWING

Art is as necessary in the home as in the school, and is not as unnecessary as people consider it. The young child, who does not have a choice of words to describe something he wants or has seen, can often tell by the use of drawing, just what that think is. The older person, to make objects clearer, or in giving directions, is often much more easily understood when he makes a diagram.

DESIGN

Design is the orderly construction of shapes or units, to form an orderly mass.

REPRESENTATION

Representation is the means of conveying an idea or story from one person to another.

CONSTRUCTION

Construction is the folding of paper or modelling of plasteline to form a desired shape or object, such as a basket, house, boat, bird, ectetera.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

Mechanical Drawing seems to be an added interest to many of the Freshmen. This teaches neatness and accuracy as well as an idea of plan drawing and working drawing.

Therefore, I am including all of the above topics in my curriculum.

I enjoy my work with all pupils, and appreciate the co-operation of the teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

LOIS GEBHARD,

Supervisor of Drawing.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC

I submit herewith a brief report of the work accomplished in music, for 1929.

Classes in music this year have been carried on much the same as those of the previous year. The fundamentals necessary in each grade are being taught and many of the songs learned by the children are used by them in their various holiday exercises.

In addition to the chorus work in the Junior High School, a course in the lives of famous composers, including some of their works, has been introduced, and I feel that in this way the pupils become better acquainted with some of the old masters whose music is so everlasting.

The Senior High School chorus this year is greatly improved, due to the fact that the chorus is larger, and part-work is made possible because of a more even distribution of boys and girls. Last year the chorus was comprised almost entirely of girls.

Through the untiring efforts and never-failing interest of our late superintendent, Mr. Sims, two new factors in music, namely instrumental classes, resulting in the organizing of orchestras, and weekly radio concerts for all grades, were introduced into the schools last year, and I am happy to report that these are being carried on this year, to the enjoyment of all concerned. The instrumental classes are taught by Mr. Thomas Nassi of Boston, who spends two days each week in this district, and it is to him that we are indebted for the splendid training which these young musicians are receiving. We who are particularly interested in the progress of music in our schools sense perhaps more than others the loss of one who was so musical himself, and so ever ready to help in any possible way toward the musical training of our students, and it is with pleasure that we carry on the work which has been thus instigated and encouraged.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH H. OSBORNE,

Supervisor of Music.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL NURSE

“ ‘Tis education forms the common mind
Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined.”
—Pope.

No man who knows anything about motor cars, would attempt to drive his automobile even one whole season without overhauling it, assuring himself that brakes were holding, and that cylinders and bearings were working. He prefers repair expenses to total loss.

A period overhauling of your human body will keep it running smoothly long after indifference would have scrapped it.

You know the model of your car
You know just what its powers are.
You treat it with a deal of care,
Nor tax it more than it will bear.
But as to Self—that's different,
Your mechanism may be bent,
Your carburetor gone to grass,
Your engine a rusty mass.
Your wheels may wobble and your cogs
Be handed over to the dogs.
And you skip and skid and slide,
Without a thought of things inside.
What fools indeed we mortals are
To lavish care upon a Car,
With ne'er a bit of time to see
About our own machinery!

I wonder how many of the parents think of their children as a physical machine, who need to be kept in repair to start out their life's work that they may be blessed with health and happiness. Ruskin says, "The nation is the wealthiest that has the greatest number of happy healthy human beings."

During the year 1929, three hundred and seventy school visits were made and twenty-one cases of communicable diseases were cared for.

Fifteen children attended an eye clinic in Hyannis, conducted by Dr. Sternberg. One pair of glasses has been furnished by the Visiting Nurse Association.

Several children were cared for at the Childrens' Camps in Pocasset, during the summer. There have been very few severe cases of communicable diseases among the children this year. Their general condition seems, on a whole, fairly good, except there seems to be a great need of dental work.

"Pleasant words are as a honey comb, sweet to the soul and health to the bones."

—Prov. XVI—24.

Respectfully submitted,

MYRTLE MARIE HUDSON, R. N.

REPORT OF SCHOOL PHYSICIANS

---

During the year just passed we have had very little of a serious nature in the line of contagious diseases to annoy us. To be sure a slight outbreak of diphtheria visited our schools but was happily confined to the original families and got no further. Some of our neighboring towns have had epidemics of scarlet fever but we have been spared this troublesome disease. On the whole the health of our student body has been unusually good.

The medical officers of your schools are extremely grateful for the increasing cooperation of the parents in helping out in the matter of attending to the health needs of the children, quite different from the days in which the matter of school hygiene was first attempted when it seemed to be the motto to resist anything that might be suggested in the way of conserving the health of the children. Now we have the parents squarely behind us with a wholesome support of any project for the good of the boys and girls.

In the matter of tonsils, adenoids and teeth the parents have shown that they want their children to have all conditions remedied that in any way tend to limit the receptivity of the child, no more opposition to the carrying on of this good work.

At this time we wish to thank the parents for upholding our work which we assure them is always done with the sole purpose in view of benefiting the child in health and also making it easier for him to become a good student by removing obstacles from his path.

Respectfully submitted,

H. D. HANDY, M. D.
